

The Department of Economics presents Conversations with Distinguished Alumni:

An Economist's Tale: From Rutgers, to the IMF, to a DC Think Tank

Morris Goldstein, RC '66

Former Deputy Director of Research at the IMF and former Senior Fellow, Peterson Institute for International Economics

Morris Goldstein recently retired from the the Peterson Institute for International Economics where for many years he held the Dennis Weatherstone Chair. Prior to joining Peterson in 1994, Dr. Goldstein spent twenty five years on the IMF staff, the last eight as Deputy Director of the IMF's Research Department. In 1999, he was the Project Director for the Council on Foreign Relations' blue-ribbon task force on the international financial architecture.

When:

Tuesday, April 10, 2018
3:00-4:00pm

Where:

Murray Hall, Room 111
All Rutgers Students Welcome

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences